De Gaulle: Still Hood USSR Talks

PARIS—President de Gaulle, in his first public presentation since his return from Moscow, today said that the French government would not be deceived by Soviet overtures.

De Gaulle, who returned from Moscow last night, said that he had a clear impression that the Soviet Union was not ready to return to the path of peace and cooperation with the West.

He said that the Soviet Union was still a threat to the peace of the world and that the French government would continue to work for the establishment of a new world order.
